

Hospice Lottery Canvasser

Duchess of Kent House Charity, organiser of the new Berkshire Hospice Lottery are looking for a self-employed local Hospice Lottery Canvasser to promote and sell lottery tickets on a commission only basis. Candidates should be personable and outward-going sales people with good local contacts and knowledge, sympathetic to the ethos of this hospice charity. Generous commission given on ticket sales and direct debit sign-ups. Full training given. Need own transport to cover our area. Our main population areas are: Newbury, Reading & Wokingham and surrounding districts, and our immediate need is for the Greater Reading area to be covered.

Canvassers for hospice lotteries earn reasonable and steady incomes. Commission paid weekly in arrears on results. The commission payable is set at: £10 for each Direct Debit signed up; for each cheque payment: 13 weeks £6, 26 weeks £8 and 52 weeks £10. Monthly cash payers who pay £4 for 4 weeks=10% commission.

For an informal discussion please ring George on 0118 939 4889 or e-mail: george.solly@berks-hospice-lottery.org.uk

Application by CV please and covering letter.

.gs4272B
.31/03/10

